

The Senatorial Fight.

Mr. Charles B. Poyntz will be the nominee of the Democratic Senatorial convention which meets in this city on the 14th of May.

The recent convention in this and Lewis County settled that question. The Mason County Democrats in mass meeting assembled unanimously instructed the delegates "to vote for whomever the Democracy of Lewis County shall present for said Senatorial nomination." It was the Lewis County Democrats' time to name the candidate, and that has been done. Mr. Poyntz is their choice, and the delegates of Mason County are instructed to vote for him and will vote for him and he will be the nominee.

There is some dissatisfaction in this county at the situation, but Democrats should lay aside past differences and prepare to give the nominee of the convention a warm support at the polls instead of working to keep alive old scores. Harmony is necessary to success, and success in August should be the aim of every Democrat who has the future welfare of the party at heart.

Those who are disposed to "kick" should bear in mind that their action, if persisted in, may endanger party success not only in the Senatorial fight in August but in future Congressional elections. The party should not be expected to take up the personal fight of any individual.

"If there should be a watch dog in Congress next season," says the Louisville Times, "he will have a job on his hands. There are several pension organs published in the United States, and all of them are agreed upon raids on the surplus. The first bill they wish passed is one removing the limitation in the matter of time from the arrears of pension act. Three years ago Mr. Randall declared from his seat in Congress that such a measure, if passed that session, would entail an expenditure of $265,000,000 in addition to the regular annual appropriation, and if passed now the sum would be much greater. A movement is also on foot to increase the rate of all pensions less than $72 per month, and as a general drag-net, a bill will be introduced and pressed to its passage granting a pension to every surviving ex-Federal soldier who was enlisted during the war. Numerous petitions favoring these bills are in circulation at the North, and there will be numberless signatures obtained—enough to make the raids Republican party measures—and if they should all pass, this administration will be selling bonds before it is two years old, instead of redeeming them, and taxes will be increased instead of decreased.

"As patriots, Democratic Congressmen should oppose these measures with all their might; as partisans they might wink at them, for their passage would drive the last nail in the coffin of the Republican party, assuming that there is a public conscience in the country."

Hon. M. C. ALFORD, President of the State League of Democratic Clubs, has summoned the Executive Committee to meet at Louisville to-morrow evening.

The Democratic State Convention will meet to-morrow at Louisville. It will not have much to do, as Captain Sharp has no opposition for the nomination for State Treasurer.

Stock, Field and Farm.

Farmers from the Eastern part of the county report that the drouth is damaging the oat crop.

The Anderson (Ky.) News says: "The rainfall for the first four months of this year is ten to twelve inches short of the average for this time of year. As for the month of April, it is all short, for during the entire month there was not, in this locality at least, enough rain to dampen an inch of dust. No man living ever saw 'showery April' so entirely lacking in showers."

The Owensboro Inquirer says: "The fly is in the wheat, the bug ravages the tobacco beds, the cut worm mows down the tender corn, and the drouth is everywhere. These are not happy days for the hard-working farmer. Hardly a letter comes to the Inquirer from Davies and adjoining counties that does not add to the universal complaint over the drouth. The farmers are becoming discouraged. Oats in many places are nearly ruined, tobacco plants are dead or devoured by the bugs, and the cut-worm is playing havoc with the corn."

A Card From P. P. Parker.

To the Democrats of Mason County: As it has been reported throughout the county that W. W. Ball would have charge of the County Clerk's office in the event of my election, this is to certify that, if elected, I most certainly will fill said office myself, and said Ball will not be my Deputy. I pledge my word of honor to that effect. Very respectfully,
P. P. PARKER.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

ORANGEBURG.

Mr. Robert Hord, of Lewis, spent Sunday with his son, Dr. W. H. Hord.

John L. Whitaker was out here two or three days last week, the guest of the Bullock brothers.

Considerable frost last Friday morning. It about cleaned up the early gardens and the fruit crop.

The largest crowds attend church here that have been present for years, and more interest manifested.

Mr. James Dickson, we regret to say, is no better. His physician says he can not live but a few days at the most.

The revival is still going on here. The pastor has the promise of Miss Merriman, the revivalist, to help this week.

CONCORD, LEWIS COUNTY.

Col. C. H. Childs was here last week on business connected with the C. and O. R. R.

A. M. Lang, of Covadale, is in Washington City on business.

Sands & Turner sunk a well here last week for the use of the public. It is seventy-five feet deep.

Several of the Maysville Oddfellows were here Saturday evening, attending the regular meeting of Concord Lodge No. 260.

Among them were the editor of the BULLETIN, T. A. Davis, of the Republican, and John G. Payne.

The latter was once a citizen of this place, and his many friends were pleased to see him.

Married, Sunday, May 5th, on Quicks Run, by Rev. John College, at high noon, William Pool, aged seventy-four years, and Mrs. Saxon, aged fifty-three. Uncle Billy is a widower of about three weeks, but he looked as brave as any young groom on his first venture, while the bride was all blushes in her second venture in married life. Yea, verily, marriage is not a failure.

Miss Mollie Merriman, of Salvisa, Ky., closed a very successful meeting in the M. E. Church, South, here last week of nearly a month's duration. There were several additions, a number of whom were immersed at the close of the meeting. Miss Anna Cone, of Maysville, was here with her and added much to the good of the meeting by her music on the organ and her singing.

The citizens generally who have property within one and one-half miles of the Concord and Tollesboro turnpike met here Saturday last to consider wise to pursue in regard to a suit in the U. S. Court to compel them to pay taxes to settle for about $9,000 worth of bonds issued years ago. Hon. G. M. Thomas was present and offered to have the suit settled and for what year's tax on the road would amount to. The case is to come up for trial May 13th, at Covington.

CHOCTAW.

Warm weather is much needed. The corn is coming up nicely.

The prospect is fine for a good peach crop. Farmers are all up with their work and are taking a rest.

Tobacco buyers are getting as numerous as candidates.

W. H. Ginn and James Alexander, of Maysville, spent the day at Ewing station Sunday.

HELENA.

Miss Anna Ross is visiting friends in Flemingsburg.

The choir were the guests of Mrs. Macia Clarke Friday night.

Miss Allie Goodwin visited relatives in Tollesboro the past week.

Farmers are complaining of something killing their tobacco plants.

There was a social party at Mrs. James H. Rice's Saturday night.

Dr. F. B. Eckman and family, of Covington, are visiting relatives near here.

The K. C. train passes here twenty-five minutes late of evenings on account of the races.

Ladies, if you are looking for first-class shoes, Harrison Bros. have them now in stock.

Messrs. R. W. Wells and G. W. Gray have gone in partnership and will prize tobacco in Hillsboro, Ky.

ROBBED AND DESERTED.

What Came From an Ohio Girl's Answer to a Matrimonial "Ad."

[Kansas City Globe.]

A nubile and refined American of thirty-five desires correspondence with a handsome young lady of means. Object matrimony. Blonde preferred. Send photograph. Address W. care Room 311, Sherman House.

It was this advertisement, inserted near a year ago in the Chicago Herald, that in a moment of mischief pretty Sadie Westover, of Columbiana County, Ohio, answered. Yesterday afternoon this same Sadie Westover, now Mrs. Archie W. Wentworth, sad-eyed and tearful, called upon Postmaster Adkins. The tale she told was instructive, romantic and sad. Her errand was to find an envelope containing her marriage certificate. Search was instituted and the desired document found. When in possession of the certificate, and assured that it was legal and correct, the young lady gave way to copious tears, half bitter, half joyful. The letter in question was addressed to Archie W. Wentworth, and it was as Mrs. Archie that the young lady laid claim to the epistle.

A week ago Wednesday evening a couple called upon Rev. Dr. Carpenter, Methodist pastor at Westport. They were in possession of the proper credentials and they were married. The letter which the young lady sought contained the marriage certificate from the Rev. Carpenter.

The tale which lies back of that marriage is a unique one. Miss Westover comes of excellent parentage, her family being an old one and standing high. The young lady saw the advertisement of Wentworth as given above, asking for a wife. As a joke she answered it. He not only replied, but called upon her. He was perhaps thirty-five, well dressed and fine-looking. As a result the affair ripened into a love-match, and when, a short time since, Wentworth sent her money and a ticket for Kansas City, she came here and was married. Hardly one brief week did their honeymoon last. Miss Westover brought with her $450. Last Thursday morning she awoke and found him gone and the money with him. It now appears that Wentworth's real name was J. D. Marshall, and that he is an accomplished fraud. The young lady is now at the home of Felix G. Head, at 1364 Flora avenue. Mr. Head is an old friend of the family. She will shortly return to her home in Ohio.

Kentucky's Handsome Governor.

[New York Sun.]

I am told that Governor Buckner, of Kentucky, scored the success of the evening at the Grant birthday dinner on Saturday last. One who was present tells me that his speech upon the character of his friend and whilom antagonist was full of feeling and, at the same time, of dignity. The Governor is an extremely handsome gentleman, of military bearing and the most delightful old-school Southern manner. It is not generally known that after the war he for a time engaged in journalism, and is a writer of marked ability and force. The Governor has since recovered the fortune which his devotion to the Southern cause had placed in jeopardy, and can afford to look back on the war and the trying times which succeeded it with the utmost philosophy.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse. Sales on market for the week just closed amount to 1,539 hhds, with receipts for the same period of 672 hhds. Sales on market since January 1st, amount to 44,989 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1888 on our market to date 32,688 hhds.

It is now evident that the crop cannot be as large as it was at one time anticipated, but with general and early rains a crop of fair size may yet be put on the hill. Our market has been very strong and active during the week, and we find it necessary to advance quotations on some grades of burley.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for new burley tobacco:

First (dark) and orange leaf tobacco:
Common leaf.....$ 3 00 to $ 4 50
Common leaf, not colored.....$ 4 50 to $ 5 00
Common leaf.....$ 5 00 to $ 5 50
Medium to good leaf.....$ 5 50 to $ 6 00
Select or wrapery leaf.....$ 6 00 to $ 6 50
